

I am writing re: Docket #01-184. Although I usually disapprove of government telling industry how to run its business, in this case the public good will clearly be served by requiring the portability of wireless phone numbers. Thank you for your consideration.